PENALTY FOR MARRYING TOO MUCH. The Brookhaven Journal says, Samuel S. Goodman, agay Lothario, was tried in the Circuit Court, now in session, on Wednesday last, for bigamy, found guilty, and sentenced by Judge McNair, to four years in the penitentiary. It seems that this man Goodman (or, as it turns out, a very bad man,) married the widow of Lorinda Hood, in Copials county, in December last, lived with her but a few months, then left her without cause or provocation on her part, and married some time in March last the widow Pope, in this county. He was arrested in April or May last, and has since then been lying in our county jail being unable to give buil for his appearance.
